1. OVERVIEW

The Bronze Savings Account is the simplest product on the personal savings menu and the usual first savings account for a new Rho Bank customer. It carries light requirements, opens in a single sitting at the deposit desk, and asks very little of the customer afterward. The terms below print from the register as stored on the effective date in the header.

2. OPENING REQUIREMENTS

FIELD	REGISTER VALUE
Minimum opening deposit	None

The register stores no opening minimum for the Bronze Savings Account, and the field prints as it is held. A new Bronze account can take deposits as soon as the desk finishes the opening, whether or not money moves the same day.

3. FEES & MINIMUMS

FIELD	REGISTER VALUE
Monthly maintenance fee	$2.50

Bronze carries a small monthly maintenance charge of $2.50, assessed with the statement cycle.

4. WITHDRAWALS & TRANSFERS

The register holds no Bronze-specific withdrawal schedule; day-to-day handling follows the account disclosures for personal savings. Money moves in and out through the usual online and mobile channels once the account is live.

5. INTEREST

FIELD	REGISTER VALUE
Published rate reference	Personal Deposit Rate & Fee Schedule

Interest starts on its own once there is money in the account; nothing needs to be switched on. Current Bronze rates are published in the Personal Deposit Rate & Fee Schedule; this profile does not print rate values.

6. SERVICE & GUIDANCE NOTES

1. An empty Bronze account earns nothing — the funded balance is what earns.
2. Point customers at their statements when they ask what interest actually posted; the statement line is the record.
3. Check the effective date in the header against the register before quoting from a printed copy at the desk.
4. Bronze conversations are usually first-account conversations; slow down on the basics before the terms.
